

Dear College Student,

- IF you find yourself short on resources and time
- IF you find yourself dozing off in church because you are exhausted from class work, homework and work
- IF you are working harder and making less
- IF you long for extra cash to help finance your tuition, and have some left over for fun activities
- IF you looking for an additional source of income
- IF (and you know you are) blessed with a family, church and friends who love you and want to see you succeed in your endeavors to earn a Christian education and serve the LORD
- THEN we have a proposal for you

Help finance your college tuition by sharing the good news of the Amazing! NOK OUT™ Odor Elimination & Disinfectant System product line with your family and friends.

Why not help your family and friends get more for less while earning a substantial commission for yourself?

Send them to our website at www.nokout.us and help them to simplify, save, and secure their peace of mind. Once they have used NOK OUT, they will forget about all those other costly household and commercial cleaners. By ordering NOK OUT, your family and friends will get a better product at a better price, AND help support your efforts to get a Christian education.

There are many great reasons for utilizing this opportunity, some of them are:

- Ease of implementation – the Internet’s social network can be used to your advantage – word of mouth is the greatest advertising tool ever invented
- You do not have to handle any product or process any payments
- Your customers will remain your customers – even after you have graduated, you will continue to receive a monthly commission check
- Your commissions increase from 30% to 35% - there is no minimum sales amount required

You say, “This sounds too good to be true,” well, on the surface, yes, it does; but in actuality, it does require your input to make this a successful endeavor. The equation is: ENTHUSIASM + EXCITEMENT = EARNINGS. Your enthusiasm and excitement about this opportunity will spread to your family and friends, and they will become your staunch supporters!

Say YES! To our proposal today, and begin earning extra income right away!

Signed,

Mrs. Terry Long & Mrs. Alice Pavlick,
